

Join the Leaders.

Save time. Save money. Enhance your image. Increase your bottom line. Shape the future

That's what leaders do when they belong to APSO.

PROTECTING YOUR BUSINESS PROSPECTS

Speaking out counts – in sphere of Government, in the media & with clients.

Whether it's being heard at NEDLAC and other forums on national policies affecting the labour recruitment industry, commenting to the news media, developing strategies to promote professionalism, or more, APSO works hard to protect members from legal liability, expand their business opportunities, and promote a positive image to a wide range of publics.

ENHANCING YOUR PROFESSIONAL SKILL

Education. Training. Networking. Knowledge.

These are the hallmarks of recruiter professionals. From the APSO entry exam, training workshops, regular networking and national conference, APSO offers many opportunities to expand your expertise and improve your performance.

HELPING YOU STAY AHEAD

APSO information is accurate, timely and trustworthy – just what you need to run your business with confidence.

While you concentrate on making money, trust APSO to keep you informed on the latest developments. Information is distributed via the glossy quarterly magazine, APSOgram, email INFOgrams and news flashes and the comprehensive APSO website.

DRIVING ETHICS & BEST PRACTICE

APSO is committed to promoting adherence to high ethical & professional standards of business.

These include legal compliance, professional standards of operation and adherence to the APSO Code of Best Practice & Ethics. Today many client companies choose only to deal with APSO members and list this as a requirement for tendering for business.

The Association of Personnel Service Organisations (APSO) was established in 1977 and continues to represent its members in dealings with Government and related bodies. APSO promotes and ensures, for the benefit of both clients and candidates, the adherence to high ethical and professional standards of business.

APSO is focused on improving professionalism of the recruitment industry, by providing training and continuous professional development for our members and their employees. APSO works closely with the Services SETA and other stakeholders to ensure that APSO members remain at the "top" when it comes to delivering recruitment services to their clients.

When it comes to your recruitment business, APSO membership makes sense!

- Promoting Professionalism
- Striving for Regulation
- Speaking out in a powerful voice
- Protecting the Industry
- Delivering key information
- Ensuring education & CPD
